Re: Philadelphia Marriott, City Ave., Philadelphia, PA

Dear Ms. Prisk:

This will confirm our telephone conversation of January 4, 2002 wherein I advised you that Marriott Corporation, n/k/a Host Marriott L.P., no longer owns the hotel property located on City Ave. in Philadelphia, PA. Unfortunately, all records related to this property were destroyed in August of 2001. Enclosed is the detail from the records retention clerk confirming the date of destruction (ten years from delivery to storage).

I am sorry that we were not able to provide you with even the most basic information regarding the disposition of this property, but without documents we are unable to assist you.

Sincerely,

Karen L. Ehrlich
